Description

1 Bell Yard is an impressive, Grade II listed corner building with offices providing, a top floor with views over Fleet Street and the Royal Courts of Justice.

The available floor offers underfloor trunking, Cat II lighting, heating, & cooling, video entry systems and would suit a variety of occupiers.

A passenger lift is available alongside the ornate staircase to the floors.

Midtown

Midtown is an unofficial term used to describe the area between the West End and the City and combines Holborn, Bloomsbury and the area along the Strand and Fleet Street.

The term was created with the aim of raising the areas profile and is becoming increasingly accepted, although may confuse those less familiar with central London.
